LIBBEY HEAT-TREATED® GLASSWARE

Famous Libbey Heat-Treated glassware gives longer (3 to 5 times) service.

A special tempering process does the trick for pennies more in cost . . . dollars more in savings.

The special dating mark shows the year and the quarter in which the glass was made. It lets you check service life for yourself.

Numerical Index by Item Number —Inside Back Cover

NOTE: In copy under the items, "H"=height, "T"=top diameter, "B"=bottom diameter. Letters "S"=Smoke color, "A"=Aqua. "HT" suffix means glass is Heat-Treated. Lined versions of items have same dimensions as unlined glass. All dimensions are approximate to nearest ⅛" and should not be construed as specifications. Exact dimensions are available from Libbey Products, Toledo 1, Ohio.

COLUMBIAN GLASSES

A matched line of tumblers and stemware in this ever-popular Columbian design adds grace and style to any table setting . . . plus rugged Libbey durability.

EMBASSY STEMWARE

To help the enterprising restaurateur upgrade toward a more successful food and beverage service, Libbey introduces another of its many firsts in the United States . . . one-piece automatically pulled stemware. Embassy by Libbey offers the style and grace of a long-popular Continental feel. Yet, this "hand blown" look is durable enough to give economical day-in, day-out service.

THE RIGHT GLASS

(As always, available from Libbey.) Here are ten popular glassware shapes to serve your bar needs . . . and the drinks that should be served in them. But don't let this hold your imagination in check—innovation can spark conversation and excitement.

CORDIAL

Special service for "sipping" drinks . . . cordials, liquers, from Benedictine to Drambuie, Anisette and Triple Sec.

NEW FASHIONED

Old Fashioneds, of course, but great as well for aperitifs, crustas, on-the-rocks, smashes and toddies.

FOOTED ON-THE-ROCKS

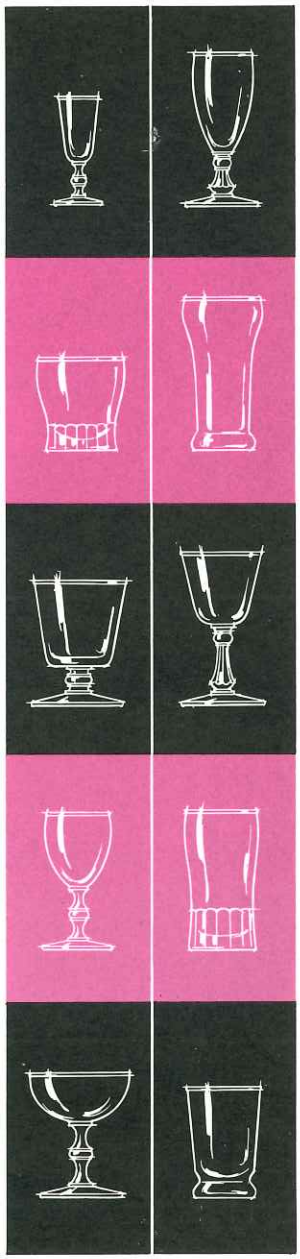
On-the-rocks service with a flair—also fine for drinks from aperitifs to cocktails to toddies.

WINE

Proper for serving a wide variety of red and white table wines, or fortified wines such as port or muscatel.

CHAMPAGNE

Imported or domestic . . . white or pink . . . champagne (and all sparkling wines) belong in this glass. Use also for Frozen Daiquiri or King Size cocktails.



SOUR

For all sours . . . whether made with whiskey, rum, brandy, vodka or gin.

PILSNER

A handsome and popular heavy-base glass for beers, ales, porter or stout.

COCKTAIL

For all cocktails from Manhattans and Martinis, to Side Cars and Stingers.

HI-BALL

Used with all liquor highballs with any kind of mix. Good, too, for fizzes, daisies, rickeys, sangarees, spritzers and swizzles.

JUICE

Use this for Bloody Marys or Screwdrivers—but don't forget flips and sours.

STILL STANDING . . . Libbey's famous "Safedge® Guarantee"

GUARANTEE

If any Safedge glassware becomes chipped on the rim from any cause whatsoever, it will be replaced free of cost, or the purchase price refunded, on its return to the dealer from whom it was originally purchased. Because all glassware is fragile, this guarantee, of course, does not cover breakage.
